

The theme of the panel discussion, which is organized every year by Rutherford Interfaith Council, was tolerance. Executive director Dr. Levent represented IDC at the panel and focused on tolerance from Islamic perspective. After he explained Islam advocates and promoted peace, he gave examples from history.

We thank Ms. Karen Ohland, President, and other members of the Rutherford Interfaith Council for organizing the panel and for inviting IDC.

