Thursday, April 28th 2011, at the Hilton Parsippany hotel, more than hundred and fifty people came together to celebrate the Law Enforcement Dinner hosted by the Interfaith Dialog Center. The ceremony was aimed at honoring those who work tirelessly to protect and serve the citizens of New Jersey.

During the ceremony awards were handed out recognizing the work of those that have helped make a difference. Morris County Prosecutor Robert A. Bianchi hosted the dinner as the Master of Ceremonies.

Those who recieved awards are:

Liutenant Governor Kim Guadagno
Assistant SAC Kevin Cruise, FBI Newark
Supervising State Investigator John Paige, NJ Homeland Security
Passaic County Prosecutor Camelia Valdes
Senator Anthony Buccom 25th District
Assemblyman Gordon Johnson, 37th District
William Schievella, Chief of Investigations for Morris County Prosecutor's Office

It was an unforgettable evening, guests enjoyed a wonderful dinner and great conversations. We thank everyone who attended.

Some pictures from the event:

Awardees

Morris County Prosecutor Robert A. Bianchi

Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno

Assistant SAC, FBI Newark Division, Kevin Cruise

Supervising State Investigator John Paige

Passaic County Prosecutor Camelia Valdes

25th District Senator Anthony Bucco

37th District Assemblyman Gordon Johnson

Chief of Investigations for Morris County Prosecutor's office William Schievella

Special Agent in Charge, Michael B. Ward said his remarks at end of the program.

United States Attorney, Paul Fishman said his remarks, too

4
IDC