

On Sunday March 14th at 11am, Wyoming Presbyterian Church hosted the IDC and Turkish Community members on a friendship gathering.

Dr. Levent Koc CEO of the IDC talked about the programs that they are involved in and other organizations that Turkish community is involved such as business association, Humanitarian Relief Organization, Turkish Cultrual Centers and more. The IDC is the most active interfaith organization in NJ at the moment, Levent Koc quoted. He further said "We try to reach out state wide and to all walk of life". Some 30 guests attended this event. Turkish community served home made appetizers and food.

If you like to host a friendship gathering at your church or synagogue, just contact us.

Some pictures of the gathering is below:

