

The IDC held a friendship gathering at St. James Roman Catholic Church in Pennington on November 24 2010.

The IDC thanks Pat Brannigan, Executive Director, NJ Catholic Conference for organizing this event and inviting Turkish American Community members to his church. Dr. Levent Koc the Ceo of the IDC made a presentation about Islam, explaining some issues like basics of faith, relations with Jews and Christians, war, etc.

There were over a 100 people who attended this event, turkish food was also served, it was a wonderful event.

Pictures from the event:

